Regrets: Mary Spurrell, Meagan Condon, Mark Spurrell

Updates From Previous Minutes

- Mary arranged keys for the staff, exec still needs keys.
- Dustin didn't make a list of potential junior members interested in evening lessons as there were only one or two interested parents.

Other Updates

- Sports alliance tickets are due back mid August. Coaches will begin to remind kids to return tickets.
- We have held two tournaments this year, and both have turned a profit.
- We are currently running 3 leagues and a singles ladder.
- We introduced a live scoring application to be used during tournaments. It was tested during the Mount Pearl Open and was well received.
- Summer games will be held in Harbour Grace from August 18 – 21st. There is a meeting at 7 PM on Tuesday for participants and parents. During the games, Junior lessons will take place on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday while Adult lessons will take place on Wednesday and Thursday.
- Thomas mentioned another place to get tennis balls for next season that may be cheaper than our current supplier.
- Reviewed the membership list and have 79 members to date.

Action Items To Complete

- Thomas and Steve will investigate getting an account with a recycler to recycle recyclables gained from normal club operations and items left over from rentals. Funds will be placed into the club account.
- Thomas to bring a list of members who had sports alliance tickets to be collected from members.
- There are still a few members who have not paid. Thomas and Dustin will follow up with members.
- Steve to follow up with the City regarding getting the 7 broken lights fixed.
- Thomas will begin to plan a year-end pot-luck dinner for members to be scheduled during the club closed tournament. The AGM will be planned and scheduled to
